NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru was quoted today as saying he would do his best to stop the fighting in Tibet. Silun Lukhangwa, a former member of the Dalai Lama's Tibetan government, headed a delegation which saw the Indian leader.

Lukhangwa told a news conference the Tibetans had asked Nehru to use his good offices to arrange a cease-fire in Tibet's rebellion against the Chinese Communists and to seek restoration of Tibet's autonomy through negotiations between Tibet and Red China. He quoted Nehru as replying: "The people of India are extremely distressed at Tibetan developments, and I shall do my best through diplomatic channels to stop the fighting."

AWOL Soldiers Cited Here For Car Theft in Ashville

A continued investigation by the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department ended today when two absent without leave soldiers appeared in Circleville Municipal Court today on charges of auto theft and removing parts from a car.

Being held here are Regis A. Seitz, 33, Natrona Height Pa., and Jerry T. Smith, 19, South Webster, O. Both are accused of taking a car from the Mercer Auto Agency in Ashville and a license plate from another Ashville auto on March 18.

Each was bound to the Pickaway County Grand Jury under $3,500 bond on the car theft. Each was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three months in jail for taking the license plate. The court later suspended two months of the jail terms and imposed probation for one year.

Deputy Sheriff Robert Hoover, playing a hunch in connecting the stolen car and the license plate, contacted Columbus lawmen. A check revealed that two soldiers apprehended for AWOL had possession of the missing tag.

'Trial Balloon' Type Government Deployed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The first wide crack in the harmony of the Democratic-dominated 103rd General Assembly appeared today.

Democratic Sen. Charles J. Carney of Youngstown, often termed the No. 2 man in the Ohio Senate, told Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle:

"Frankly, governor, I am becoming disenchanted with government by press release and government by trial balloon."

He also asked DiSalle to appear before the Senate's State Government Committee to give his views on "pending or possible" legislation affecting the horse-racing industry.

DiSalle acknowledged that Carney handed him the letter Monday, but said he had no comment at this time.

Carney's sharp letter told the governor:

"The only way I have been able to keep up with your views on state legislation has been by reading the latest editions of the newspapers. Sometimes the various newspapers do not agree as to your statements. I note that you freely admit some of your statements are trial balloons."

Noting that DiSalle said a week ago he was willing to appear before any legislative group at any time, Carney's letter pointed out:

"We have certain bills pertaining to the horse-racing industry pending. . . . I note by the newspapers that you have expressed contradictory statements pertaining to this industry. Therefore, I respectfully request that you appear before (our) committee."

Carney wound up his letter: "assuring you of my continued co-operation."

Commissioners In Favor Of Rural Zoning Program

The Pickaway County Commissioners approve of rural zoning and are willing to "do anything possible" to see it accomplished.

Commissioner Board Chairman Clyde Michel said, "We'll do it or we will leave it up to the wasap trustees."

Much indignation was registered last night at a rural zoning discussion by residents of the Teays Valley School District over the heavy influx of trailer courts into their area.

Residents of Harrison and Madison Twp. were especially aroused by the trailer courts that are flooding the county with families and school children who "are not paying their fair share" of the school upkeep costs, the protesters said.

THE RURAL ZONING meeting was sponsored by the Farm Bureau, the local Agricultural Extension Service and the county granges.

George Hamrick, County Extension Agent, was moderator of the discussion that followed a talk by Dean Simeral, assistant director of public relations for the Ohio Farm Bureau.

The meeting was open to the public and held in the Scioto Valley Grange Hall, north of Ashville. Nearly 80 persons were on hand, mostly from the northern townships of the county which are affected by the trailer unit influx.

Residents of Harrison and Madison Twp. held a special session after the zoning meeting was adjourned and expressed a desire to put a zoning plan before voters in the November general election.

Simeral stated that rural zoning was first permitted in 1947. Since then approximately 250 Ohio townships have instituted rural zoning.

Simeral explained that no one can zone against agriculture but can zone for it. Zoning can be approached from four standpoints — township or a portion of a township and by county or a portion of a county.

THE PROCEDURE IS the same in either form of government. The commissioners or trustees can pass a resolution of intent to zone and then appoint a five-member zoning commission.

The zoning commission must draft zoning regulations of the area to be zoned, prepare a map of land classifications and make a written description of that map.

It must then hold a public hearing to note objections of its zoning plan. After its approval it is submitted to the commissioners or trustees, as the case may be, and they must hold public hearings for objections.

Any changes in the zoning plans must be reheard at a public hearing, "which may take considerable time to erase all objections," Simeral said.

After the final plan is approved it is submitted to the voters for approval or objection. If a county-wide plan is approved it needs a majority and any township voting it down will not be included.

Zoning laws, once in effect, are relatively easy to change, stated Simeral.

A SMALL MAJORITY of the voters may petition the commissioners for a desired change. Simeral said zoning laws cannot be retroactive, but if a business closes for two years and is in conflict with the existing zoning laws, it can not reopen.

Simeral cautioned voters to zone for a purpose—not against many types of homes, businesses and industries. He said that there is one township in southern Ohio that outlawed 130 different types of buildings.

Simeral said the biggest difficulty in zoning is getting residents of such a large county as ours to get behind the movement and affect it.

Otherwise, a professional firm would have to be hired and this would run the cost of zoning into thousands of dollars.

Advantage in countywide zoning would be getting the job done in one "sweep" and disputes could be settled easier.

Simeral said that zoning has to be sold because people are naturally skeptical of new regulations.

HE ALSO EMPHASIZED that any zoning law has to be reasonable or it can be overruled by court action.

At the meeting there were proponents of both zoning by township and by county. Zoning can be started either by action of the commissioners or by a petition submitted to the commissioners by 8 per cent of the voters of the last gubernatorial election.

The commissioners are forced to honor this petition and proceed with the zoning. Commissioner Clyde Michel, speaking for the board, stated petitioning the board is not necessary since it is for gubernatorial election.

The commissioners are forced to honor this petition and proceed with the zoning. Commissioner Clyde Michel, speaking for the board, is willing to go along anyway possible to get zoning started. He said, "We'll do it or we will leave it up to the township trustees."

All Pickaway County Granges have already gone on record for rural zoning. According to those present, the northern end of the county needs zoning more than the other directions.

One Harrison Twp. resident is especially concerned about Lockbourne Air Force Base officers building trailer courts with government money.

Ohio Senate Eyes Hurry-Up Vote on Idle Pay Extension

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Senate leaders are considering an unscheduled, hurry-up vote today on an emergency bill to extend special, 13-week jobless benefits for another nine months.

The bill was approved by the House only Monday night, but the special benefits for the long-time unemployed will lapse Saturday unless the Legislature acts.

Senate Majority Leader Frank W. King (D-Lucas) told newsmen today's floor vote is not certain, but he has assurances from minority Republican leaders that they will not object to a suspension of the rules to permit the vote.

The history of the special benefits goes back to last June when the then-Republican Legislature, in special session, voted to extend benefits another 13 weeks to those Ohioans who had exhausted their normal 26 weeks of jobless benefits and were still out of work.

That act expires April 4. The bill now in the legislative works would extend the life of the temporary act to Dec. 26.

It is estimated the special benefits already have cost the Ohio Unemployment Compensation Fund nearly $9 million dollars since last July and will cost another $23 million if continued through all of this year.

House Republicans led by Minority Leader Roger Cloud (R-Logan), tried to cut back the new benefits extension from Dec. 26 to July 1. He argued it was a matter of wisdom in view of the improvement of the nation's economy, but this amendment was defeated.

In advance of the session, Gov. Michael V. DiSalle told newsmen he might be forced to advocate permanent adoption of a 39-week benefit period — even though he does not personally favor it — if House Republicans refused to accept the emergency clause in Monday night's bill. But enough Republicans supported the emergency clause to permit it to carry over 18.

Also on tap today is a House floor vote on a proposal to double the state's corporation franchise tax—the first of DiSalle's one-third billion new-tax request to see the light of day.

Also due for a House floor vote Wednesday is a worked-over bill to ban motor scooter licenses for 11 and 15-year-olds.

The Senate will vote today on a state motto, proposed by an 11-year-old Cincinnati boy. The motto: "With God, All Things Are Possible."

Local C & SO Workers Leave Posts Again

Nine Columbus & Southern Ohio Electric Co. employees of the Circleville division left work again yesterday afternoon after they were notified by union officials that they are to continue their strike. Union talks are under way in Columbus today.

They are members of Local 832, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who Sunday voted to accept a company contract offer. However, a second IBEW local, 1466, Columbus, voted against acceptance of the offer.

Yesterday the nine local workers returned to work, but were unaware of the Local 1466 vote. They were called off the job when it was learned they had gone back to work.

James S. Knight said a section in the IBEW constitution bars work by members of any local when the employer is engaged in a dispute with another IBEW local.

Rebuffing suggestions from Federal Mediator H. J. Montoney for resubmission of the company proposal to members of Local 1466, Knight said:

"If the company has nothing new to offer, further meetings would be pointless."

"The company matter has been international is concerned, the locals have declined it. They're not going to vote again."

Company spokesmen, who have steadfastly indicated the utility will not go above the 4½ per cent offer, refused to comment on the union stand.

General Electric Property Included In Proposed Addition

A petition was filed yesterday with the Pickaway County Commissioners seeking annexation into the city of 337.98 acres of land along the city's east and south sides.

The petition was signed by a majority of the freeholders residing in the proposed annexation area and was submitted by J. Ludwig Haecker, 166 E. High St., their agent.

The Commissioners set 1:30 p. m. June 3 as the hearing date on the proposed annexation. They said they will take the petition under advisement.

The area to be annexed is bounded by a line beginning at a point at the intersection of the Pennsylvania Railroad and State Route 23;

Then west along the Pennsylvania Railroad right-of-way to Renick Ave.; then south along corporation line (Renick Ave.-Renick Ave. extended - Norfolk & Western Railway right-of-way) to a point directly east of the south boundary of the South Court St. School property, thence west to Route 23; then north along Route 23 to the south boundary of the Mrs. James L. Smith property;

THENCE WEST to new Route 23 bypass; south along Route 23 bypass to the first east and west fence south of the Critter's octagon house;

Then east to extension of S. Washington St.; then north to East Ave.; then east to the Kingston Pike; then north to point of origin.

This area would include General Electric Corporation property; a portion of the Circleville Bible College property; portion of the Winor Canning Co. property and the Isaac Addition.

Only freeholders, those persons owning and living on their property, are allowed to sign an annexation petition. Industries, commercial businesses and churches are ineligible to sign.

A total of 36 per cent of the freeholders signed the petition. A total of 51 per cent was needed.

Annexation proceedings were started approximately two years ago by residents of Circleville's southeast. Franklin Crites, of Crites Road, was the petition originator. Haecker recently finished garnering the necessary number of signatures.

Experts Say U.S. Navy Now In Bad Shape

WASHINGTON (AP)—A civilian survey team contends the U.S. fleet is not in an acceptable state of readiness and that drastic action is needed to "reverse the mounting deterioration now in progress."

In a censored version of its report to the secretary of the Navy, the survey team said: "The primary cause of this situation is an ever widening gap between the responsibilities assigned to the Navy and the financial resources allocated to it."

The group urged a substantial increase in funds for both new ship construction and maintenance during the next fiscal year.

Mud Run Ditch Hits Troubles

New Hollander To Fight Project

Property owners in New Hollander and the surrounding community, upset since they received statements against their property for the improvement of Mud Run Ditch last week, have set up a formal organization to resist the project.

IT WAS SEVERAL months before the surveyor was able to resume work which was completed nearly a year ago. Recently City Council asked Haecker the position of the annexation proceedings which prompted him to complete the petition and submit it to the Commissioners.

City Council has a policy to not extend water and sewage facilities beyond the corporation limits.

Annexation of this area will give the residents the possibility of these services plus fire and police protection.

They are also protected by planning and zoning laws. The No. 1 disadvantage to annexation is the increased tax rate.

Costs of the fight will be met, a spokesman said, with voluntary contributions by the property owners.

Reconstruction of Mud Run which flows along the east side of New Hollander, was asked in a petition to McKinley Kirk of Washington C. H. and others.

Several meetings had been held prior to the one Saturday when first concrete action was taken.

A SPOKESMAN for the group said Monday that the plan of action calls for property owners to file a formal protest before the joint meeting of county commissioners of Fayette, Pickaway and Ross counties, through which Mud Run flows, before the final hearing on April 29 is held at Pickaway County Courthouse.

The petition asked that the Mud Run Ditch be reconstructed, widened, deepened, straightened, altered, cleaned and repaired. The final report of estimated costs and a "edula" was filed last Tuesday by Elmer Barrett & Associates, a Chillicothe engineering firm.

The costs were estimated at $82,372.16 to be paid by the individual owners of property affected by the ditch's repair.

THE ASSESSMENTS were prepared after survey by Barrett. They will be levied in proportion to the benefit received by each property owner.

All property draining into the ditch was determined as to amount of drainage and location to the ditch's watershed.

Perry Twp. land owners were assessed the largest share of $27,016.88. New Holland lot owners were assessed $8,550 and New Holland parcel owners $21,013.27.

Fayette County was assessed $18,699.49 and Ross County, $14,000. The ditch starts in Ross County, cuts through the western border of Pickaway County and ends in Fayette.

Final hearing on the ditch reconstruction will be held at 2 p.m. April 29 in the county common pleas courtroom.

County Engineer Henry McCrary is in charge of the project and County Auditor Mrs. Marvin H. Rhodes is the clerk of the joint commission.

Prosecutor Davis, in an attempt to justify motive, had Chief Merriman's testimony bring out the fact that Hayes had bailed Mrs. Roy Thompson out of jail several times where she was held for intoxication.

Final hearing on the ditch reconstruction will be held at 2 p.m. April 29 in the county common pleas courtroom.

County Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff testified as did William Haddox, the truckdriver who found Thompson stumbling down S. Washington St. after the beating.

Hayes took the stand this morning and denied any part in the beating, stating he never struck Thompson. He said Hall administered the blows.

Defense attorney is Harry Marquis, Ashville, who finished his final argument just before recess. Presiding is Judge William Ammer.

West Ministers Ponder Strategy

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Western Big Three foreign ministers today open a two-day strategy meeting they hope will move them three-fourths of the way toward the united front they need before negotiating with the Soviets.

They are expected to give quick approval to German proposals already drafted by a team of allied working experts during the past month. In a second meeting this afternoon at the State Department they are to review the German outlook with West Germany's Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano.

The most important part of the strategy talks probably will come Wednesday when all four foreign policy chiefs consider how to reconcile their remaining differences.

Some British authorities are talking privately of negotiating an international status for West Berlin along with promises to curb the anti-Soviet tone of the West Berlin radio.

But American, French and West German authorities are cool to this idea. About the only basis for a combined Western approach appears to be Secretary Dulles' suggestion that the Allies allow East Germans to take over some Soviet responsibilities provided the Soviets openly acknowledge them as their "agents."

The Soviets have given no sign that such an offer would be satisfactory.

O'Neill's Highway Chief Says He Can Explain Extra Fees

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Extra money spent by the State Highway department under the administration of former Gov. C. William O'Neill, for work by consulting engineers, involves technicalities which can be explained, former highway director Charles M. Noble said today.

Noble, who lives in Princeton, N. J., told the Columbus Dispatch he is willing to return to Ohio to defend his position on claims the state stands to lose some $962,000 in federal highway funds because of office procedure during the '57 administration.

The Federal Bureau of Public Roads has refused to pay the amount for extra work by consulting engineers until the matter is explained satisfactorily. The money includes $592,347 the bureau refuses to pay nine consultants for extra work on the North-South Freeway (Ohio 1) and U.S. 25.

Experts Say U.S. Navy Now In Bad Shape

WASHINGTON (AP)—A civilian survey team contends the U.S. fleet is not in an acceptable state of readiness and that drastic action is needed to "reverse the mounting deterioration now in progress."

In a censored version of its report to the secretary of the Navy, the survey team said: "The primary cause of this situation is an ever widening gap between the responsibilities assigned to the Navy and the financial resources allocated to it."

The group urged a substantial increase in funds for both new ship construction and maintenance during the next fiscal year.

The censored report didn't spell out how much additional money is needed. But the Washington Post said a Navy source reported that a four-year improvement program costing more than one billion dollars has been prepared.

Any extra funds would have to be approved by Congress.

The fleet survey was made by W. E. Blewett Jr., president of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co.; L. H. Quackenbush, vice president of the State Marine Lines, a steamship company; and R. E. Gibson, director of the Johns Hopkins University Applied Science Laboratory.

The Navy had requested them to examine the fleet with emphasis on maintenance and operating problems.

A Look at Key to Kremlin

20 Years Ago, Khrushchev Was Colorless Party Hack

Editor's Note—William L. Ryan has seen Nikita Khrushchev in action in Moscow and London. He has carefully analyzed his speeches and his actions. This is the second of five articles appraising the Soviet Premier's methods as the world moves toward another summit meeting where Khrushchev will play a key role.

blacksmith climb so high? The success story is peculiarly Communist. Khrushchev found a set of coattails, climbed aboard for the ride.

The coattails belonged to Lazar Moisevich Kaganovich, who pacified the Ukraine for Stalin in the bloody days of farm collectivization.

Khrushchev had talent. Kaganovich recognized it. With ruthless zeal Khrushchev had thrown himself into the war on Stalin's political foes.

Over the corpses of innumerable fallen Bolsheviks, Khrushchev vaulted into alternate membership in the Politburo, the council of yes-men surrounding Stalin. That was in 1938. The purge was not yet complete.

Khrushchev went to the Ukraine to direct another mopup of Stalin's real and imagined enemies. There is no way of estimating how many were executed in that operation.

Khrushchev not only directed the purge, but meanwhile reorganized Ukrainian farming. As a result, Khrushchev became general party secretary in the Ukraine.

With the purge nearly over, the 18th party Congress in 1939 whisked Khrushchev into the rarefied atmosphere of the Kremlin, a full member of Stalin's politburo. He paid glowing tribute to Kaganovich and Stalin.

Seventeen years later Khrushchev would label Stalin an egomaniac murderer, political and military blunder and unparalleled barbarian. A year after that he would maneuver Kaganovich out of office, denouncing him as a man who "fawned and did everything to inflate the cult of the personality of Stalin."

Such is Soviet politics. For Khrushchev it paid off.

In World War II Khrushchev got on several inner councils. One Khrushchev job was coordination of guerrilla activity.

Tests Slated For Deep Dive Into Pacific

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — A weird-looking "water balloon" will begin a series of dives in about two weeks that eventually may take it into ocean depths man has never seen before.

The bathyscaphe Trieste, recently purchased by the Navy for $200,000 from designer Auguste Piccard, already has descended nearly 12,000 feet in the Mediterranean. With changes now being made, it will be capable of diving into the Pacific's deepest trenches—almost seven miles below the surface.

The Trieste took two short dives off San Diego in December.

Observers said the bathyscaphe experiment is the Navy's first big move in developing deep-water submarines. Today's subs cannot operate much below 750 feet, yet 90 per cent of the ocean lies beyond that level.

On April 4 Piccard's son Jacques will arrive at the Navy Electronics Laboratory here to act as consultant in the Trieste's new adventures.

By April 10 the Trieste is expected to be ready for launching again and three days later is scheduled to begin a two-month program of dives that will take it down to 4,000 feet. That's as deep as nearby coastal waters go.

Later this summer a mother ship will carry the Trieste to Hawaii for dives that will equal or better her old record of 12,000 feet.

The bathyscaphe is designed to carry two men, in a six-foot sphere suspended below a 50-foot-long tank which bears a stubby resemblance to a conventional submarine.

The steel tank, filled with gasoline, acts as a balloon to carry the sphere up and down. The tank walls are only one-fifth of an inch thick—just strong enough to withstand rough waves at the surface. The gasoline, being lighter than water, gives the craft buoyancy.

Secret Service Cancels Postage Stamp Display

BALTIMORE (AP) — The post office display of three big colored postage stamps turned out to be too colorful.

The art department proudly exhibited them in the main lobby. They commemorated events in Alaska, the Arctic and Oregon.

But the spotlight display Monday caught the eye of John H. Hanly, head of the Secret Service office here. He reminded postal officials that federal regulations prohibit colored illustrations of postage stamps.

Eggs are one of the most digestible of all protein foods.

PROFESSOR CHARGED—David C. English (above), assistant professor of animal husbandry at Oregon State College, Corvallis, is under arrest on an involuntary manslaughter charge, accused of causing the death of his adopted son, Charles, 12. He is alleged to have struck the boy on the jaw.

Twenty years ago Nikita Khrushchev seemed drab and colorless—a faceless, fawning party hack.

Who, today, would think of applying such terms to the man whose moon face, alternately beaming and scowling, dominates the world stage?

The man who now seems playing for incredibly high stakes was not always a gambler. How did a one-time illiterate blacksmith climb so high? The success story is peculiarly Communist. Khrushchev found a set of coattails, climbed aboard for the ride.

British Royal Visit to Pope Due April 22

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Britain's Princess Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth will be received by Pope John XXIII April 22, a diplomatic source said today.

The source said arrangements for the members of the British royal family to have an audience with the Pope and the date were worked out over the weekend by representatives of the Vatican and the British Embassy to the Holy See.

Princess Margaret and her mother will be in Rome from April 20-25 as guests of Sir Ashley Clarke, British ambassador to Italy.

Word that Princess Margaret will go to the audience with the Queen Mother leaked out Sunday in the London newspaper "The People." British newspapers expressed concern there would be criticism from some Protestants.

A British Protestant organization has protested the queen mother's having an audience with Pope John. The protest stems from the fact that Queen Elizabeth II is the titular head of the Church of England.

Princess Margaret was received by the late Pope Pius XII at the Vatican 10 years ago to the accompaniment of similar criticism from British Protestants.

The report in "The People" said palace and foreign office officials are urging the 28-year-old princess not to call on the new Pope.

No member of the British royal family for centuries has paid a second visit to Rome after having been received in papal audience during a previous visit," the paper said.

PROFESSOR CHARGED—David C. English (above), assistant professor of animal husbandry at Oregon State College, Corvallis, is under arrest on an involuntary manslaughter charge, accused of causing the death of his adopted son, Charles, 12. He is alleged to have struck the boy on the jaw.

Look Down for Discovery

Man is going in the wrong direction, says a retired admiral. This is not news to the prophets of doom who consider the human being his own most dangerous enemy, but the admiral literally means man should be looking down, not up.

Instead of spending all the time, effort and resources at his command to project himself into space, man should be investigating his "last great unexplored frontier"—the ocean—says Vice Admiral C. B. Momsen, one of the world's experts on submarine life and capabilities.

After spending 38 years in and around oceans—34 in the submarine service—Admiral Momsen's familiarity with his subject cannot be questioned. He is convinced the soaring population of this planet will force a greatly expanded use of the oceans, whether man's space adventures are successful or not.

"We've all gone a little crazy about this outer space business just to keep up with the Joneses," says the man who developed the Momsen lung and who helped develop the diving bell that rescued 33 men from the sunken submarine Squalus in 1939. "The ocean is the place where we should be putting our efforts in order to provide for future generations," he adds.

Why the ocean? Because, says the admiral, future generations will find the answers to food scarcity, mineral depletion, eradication of the large areas of desert land now lying useless in the world, and shorter trade routes, all at the bottom of the sea. Fish farms, supplying most of the world's food, will solve the problem of food shortages. Submarine excavators will mine precious minerals from the inexhaustible supplies stored on the ocean floor.

Oil and natural gas reserves in the ocean will keep the world's fuel needs supplied for centuries. Submarine passenger liners will traverse routes between the United States and Europe at speeds of 225 miles an hour, and cargo submarines will utilize the short cut recently found under the North Pole, trailing rubber box cars loaded with oil or a variety of other liquid and solid cargoes. Inland, deserts will have disappeared through the development of cheap methods of desalting sea water and irrigating arid wastes.

How does it sound, this world of the future? Certainly far different from that envisioned by proponents of space exploration. Yet the oceans, which cover more than half the earth's surface, have been largely ignored by man except as navigational channels. Riches are known to abound on the ocean floor, and there is no foreseeable limit to the development of this huge expanse of virgin territory.

Man may not avail himself of the opportunities in the oceans until he has exhausted himself in space, but when his attention is at last directed to the sea, he may indeed find it to be the "last great unexplored frontier."

Men Do Best After Age 60

Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Think you're too old to set the world on fire? You're not. A study of 400 outstanding men in history showed 35 per cent had made their greatest achievements between 60 and 70, 23 per cent between 70 and 80, and 8 per cent when they were more than 80. In other words, 66 per cent of their greatest work was done by men past 60.

On the other hand, the most written about man in history is Christ, the second is Shakespeare, the third is Abraham Lincoln. None of them lived to be 60. Conclusion: it's what you do that counts, not the age at which you do it.

The average U.S. family now consumes 244.9 pounds of bread and 44.7 pounds of cured ham a year. What is home without a sandwich?

Fly fishermen find it easier to catch a male than a female trout. Some feel it's because the boy fish's sense of adventure make him more willing to snap at strange bait. Others believe it just proves the male of any species is dumber.

By George Sokolsky

would prefer that intercourse with Soviet Russia be through ordinary channels.

Macmillan represents another point of view. In the first place, British public opinion is, on the whole, not as pro-American as we should like it to be. With our assistance and British trading acumen, the British economy is doing as well as the most optimistic could have anticipated. But the British would like to do more business in the United States because the dollar is still good money in spite of its depreciation.

They would like to sell more woolens and more electrical equipment. With about 5,000,000 unemployed in this country, it is difficult to accede to British desires in this regard. It is tough enough getting along with the Canadians; we should increase our unemployment if each country selected a phase of our economy to undercut.

This plays a role in British thinking. The British have lost a large part of their land forces in the separation of India and Pakistan. Today, a British army is British which is not a very popular idea. The sea has more or less been neutralized as a war theater, although the atomic submarine may develop a new kind of navy. In the air, Great Britain is excellent but another air war over the British Isles is extremely unpalatable.

And yet, if Great Britain and the United States, or better still, the United States and the Commonwealth could form an economic union, many current problems among these countries would solve themselves and the associations among these peoples would be closer. The American theory that British policy has always been to step in, to become the middleman, to play one nation against the other, persists and is a deterrent to the proper function of an alliance upon which all sides must depend.

They said the move to unify all Indians of North, Central and South America was proposed to stop "the encroachment and aggression against Indians and the assimilation by the U.S. Indian Bureau and the Canadian minister of citizenship and immigration."

The get-together, 30 miles west of Miami in the Everglades, included delegations from the Six Nations of the Iroquois, as well as the Delawares, Pottawatamies, Chippewas, Pintos, Miamis, Utes, Hopis and Blackfoot.

What Eisenhower and Macmillan have accomplished by their first conference may not be as tremendous as appears on the surface. First, they have established the solidarity, for the most part, of white civilization and government beating around the bush.

New Drugs Bring Relief

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Drugs designed to aid treatment of heart patients and those with high blood pressure, skin eruptions and ureteral colic are among recent medical advances. And these are the ones I would like to discuss today in our regular monthly review of modern medicine.

Two drugs, Esidix and Hydro-Diuril, reportedly are effective in aiding victims of heart disease and hypertension.

Esidix is reported to flush edema out of the body through the kidneys. Edema, I must explain, is a build-up of water in the tissues and frequently is found in cases of congestive heart failure.

It also reduced blood pressure significantly in 84 per cent of the patients tested.

Hydro-Diuril still is in the clinical research stage, but it also gives promise of being very beneficial in treating heart and hypertension cases. Both Esidix and Hydro-Diuril are oral diuretics.

Thirdly, they have agreed upon a Summit Conference but have pushed it into August which is far enough away and they have stipulated that it should not be a circus, which may be difficult for Khrushchev.

Finally, they have considered the prospects of several Summit Conferences which means only that when men talk, they do not fight.

Will this resolve the Russian menace? Not at all. The objective of the Soviet Universal State is the absorption of all nations in a Communist world with the Kremlin at the center. Anything less would be a defeat of Marxism-Leninism and Khrushchev could not stand up if he were thus defeated.

They would like to sell more woolens and more electrical equipment. With about 5,000,000 unemployed in this country, it is difficult to accede to British desires in this regard. ## Look Down for Discovery

Man is going in the wrong direction, says a retired admiral. This is not news to the prophets of doom who consider the human being his own most dangerous enemy, but the admiral literally means man should be looking down, not up.

Instead of spending all the time, effort and resources at his command to project himself into space, man should be investigating his "last great unexplored frontier"—the ocean—says Vice Admiral C. B. Momsen, one of the world's experts on submarine life and capabilities.

After spending 38 years in and around oceans—34 in the submarine service—Admiral Momsen's familiarity with his subject cannot be questioned. He is convinced the soaring population of this planet will force a greatly expanded use of the oceans, whether man's space adventures are successful or not.

"We've all gone a little crazy about this outer space business just to keep up with the Joneses," says the man who developed the diving bell that rescued 33 men from the sunken submarine Squalus in 1939. "The ocean is the place where we should be putting our efforts in order to provide for future generations," he adds.

Why the ocean? Because, says the admiral, future generations will find the answers to food scarcity, mineral depletion, eradication of the large areas of desert land now lying useless in the world, and shorter trade routes, all at the bottom of the sea. Fish farms, supplying most of the world's food, will solve the problem of food shortages. Submarine excavators will mine precious minerals from the inexhaustible supplies stored on the ocean floor.

Oil and natural gas reserves in the ocean will keep the world's fuel needs supplied for centuries. Submarine passenger liners will traverse routes between the United States and Europe at speeds of 225 miles an hour, and cargo submarines will utilize the short cut recently found under the North Pole, trailing rubber box cars loaded with oil or a variety of other liquid and solid cargoes. Inland, deserts will have disappeared through the development of cheap methods of desalting sea water and irrigating arid wastes.

How does it sound, this world of the future? Certainly far different from that envisioned by proponents of space exploration. Yet the oceans, which cover more than half the earth's surface, have been largely ignored by man except as navigational channels. Riches are known to abound on the ocean floor, and there is no foreseeable limit to the development of this huge expanse of virgin territory.

Man may not avail himself of the opportunities in the oceans until he has exhausted himself in space, but when his attention is at last directed to the sea, he may indeed find it to be the "last great unexplored frontier."

Men Do Best After Age 60

Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

Think you're too old to set the world on fire? You're not. A study of 400 outstanding men in history showed 35 per cent had made their greatest achievements between 60 and 70, 23 per cent between 70 and 80, and 8 per cent when they were more than 80. In other words, 66 per cent of their greatest work was done by men past 60.

On the other hand, the most written about man in history is Christ, the second is Shakespeare, the third is Abraham Lincoln. None of them lived to be 60. Conclusion: it's what you do that counts, not the age at which you do it.

New Drugs Bring Relief

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Drugs designed to aid treatment of heart patients and those with high blood pressure, skin eruptions and ureteral colic are among recent medical advances. And these are the ones I would like to discuss today in our regular monthly review of modern medicine.

Two drugs, Esidix and Hydro-Diuril, reportedly are effective in aiding victims of heart disease and hypertension.

Esidix is reported to flush edema out of the body through the kidneys. Edema, I must explain, is a build-up of water in the tissues and frequently is found in cases of congestive heart failure.

It also reduced blood pressure significantly in 84 per cent of the patients tested.

Hydro-Diuril still is in the clinical research stage, but it also gives promise of being very beneficial in treating heart and hypertension cases. Both Esidix and Hydro-Diuril are oral diuretics.

Another new drug, Triquin, is said to be effective in treating lupus erythematosus (a systemic disease resulting in scalding patches on the skin) and light-sensitive eruptions.

It is a combination of three anti-malarial compounds, Atabrine, Aralen and Plaquinil.

Researchers report that the small amounts of the three drugs contained in one Triquin tablet minimize the possibility of side effects.

Moreover, the results are said to be better than those achieved with any of the other drugs individually.

One of the most exquisite forms of pain known to man occurs in ureteral colic. This is a condition caused by the passing of small stones or gravel from the kidneys.

They concluded that in the future high income families may have more children than low or middle-income groups.

The new drug Atratan, a form of oral atropine, is reported to have relieved this agonizing pain in 47 out of 50 patients. And few of them also needed narcotics.

Researchers feel that this drug may permit treatment of more persons with ureteral colic on an out-patient basis instead of having to hospitalize them.

Madribol is a new antibacterial which was selected by one pharmaceutical firm after testing some 20,000 antibacterial agents. The firm reports it was 85 per cent effective in tests on some 5,000 patients. Its low dosage provides 24-hour action.

Question and Answer

Mrs. W. B.: Could you advise me as to the cause of pugnacious cysts and how they can be prevented?

I have had four opened and they do not heal right.

Answer: Cysts usually are formed when the outlets of the secreting glands are blocked and the glands then fill up. In the case of the oil glands of the skin, these are called sebaceous cysts and frequently become infected. Opening a cyst does not generally cure it; the cyst must be completely removed or its secreting lining totally destroyed before it will disappear.

Average Yank Not Worried By Inflation

Survey Reveals Belief That Monetary Fuss Is Mainly Political

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe inflation has a different meaning on Main street than it has in Congress.

The congressional dispute over whether new federal budget deficit would lead to more inflation, or whether it would just increase the rate of the nation's economic growth is enlivened today with this report from Minnesota:

Many million Americans don't really want inflation stopped.

This report is based on interviews with a wide sampling of citizens over a long period by the Family Economic Bureau of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. of Minneapolis.

It says although they complain about rising prices, many citizens think that monetary inflation, instead of being one of the causes of the high cost of living, is actually the measure of prosperous times.

The congressional dispute is along political lines.

Monetary conservatives hold that a balanced budget would keep the Treasury from feeding inflationary fires by swelling the supply of money and credit through its increased borrowing.

Spenders argue that the important thing is to stimulate the economy — as federal spending tends to do. This would make more jobs and presumably more profits and personal income on which to levy taxes. Then the Treasury would take in more and need to borrow less.

But outside Congress most citizens are interested primarily in two other aspects: to preserve or raise their standards of living; to halt the increase in prices they must pay for goods and services.

The Family Economics Bureau says many Americans confuse their rising standard of living with monetary inflation.

Since 1939 the average American standard of living has gone up about 50 per cent. But this, the bureau says, isn't because there are four times as many dollars in circulation, but because production of goods and services has gone up about 50 per cent for each American consumer.

We have twice as many goods and services to buy today as in 1939, but we have four times as much money in circulation. The bureau holds that since there are now twice as many dollars bid for each unit of goods, the dollar will buy only half as much goods. This, it says, is how inflation has doubled prices.

Inflation thus distorts the appearance of prosperity while threatening in time to undermine it.

Christine Jorgensen's Marriage Is Delayed

NEW YORK (AP) — Christine Jorgensen's efforts to obtain a marriage license have been delayed by a technicality, not connected with the fact that she changed her sex.

The delay came Monday when the would-be bridegroom, Howard J. Knox, 33, a Waukegan, Ill., statistician, couldn't produce a copy of an Illinois divorce decree that ended a previous marriage.

As for Miss Jorgensen's sex, which was changed from male to female by surgery in Denmark in 1950, a blood test certificate on which a physician certifies that she is woman should be sufficient, said City Clerk Herman Katz.

Stewart Grangers Like Their Ranch in Arizona

By GENE HANDSAKER

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Why would two British-born movie stars buy and live on a big Arizona ranch 600 miles from their work here?

"It's a wonderful life," said Stewart Granger. "I'd like to stay there and never come back to Hollywood."

We were on the sidelines while Jean Simmons, his wife, ladled out stew to a fellow Roman slave Kirk Douglas for a scene in "Spartacus."

During a break the London-trained lass said of ranching: "I love it. We're up early, out riding, checking over the joint. It's a very full day."

Joint? At my request Granger described their spread:

Ten thousand acres of rolling hills just east of Nogales, five

Visitors Start Trek to Capital

Washington Is Hit By Annual Influx

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even if the crocus and the forsythia weren't bursting into blossom you'd know it was springtime in Washington—the tourist season is in full bloom.

The annual spring influx of Americans to see their nation's capital started about two weeks ago.

This is the time the high school kids on their senior class trip roll into town in school buses draped with signs such as "Washington or bust."

This is the time the workers at the Capitol get in some broken field running to maneuver through the sightseers.

It's the busiest tourist time of the year, according to the head Capitol guide.

Washington expected about 200,000 visitors over the four-day Easter holiday weekend alone.

On April 7 there'll be another big influx for the traditional Cherry Blossom Festival with a torchlight parade and high school bands from many sections of the country.

This year, festival officials think they guessed right and the fairyland of pink cherry blossoms around the Jefferson Memorial will be at its prettiest on the festival date.

Unfortunately, the Capitol building isn't at its show-off best.

The halls of the Congress are silent while members are back home on their annual Easter recess.

The focal point of the Capitol—the rotunda with its massive paintings and skyward view into the dome—is closed for repairs.

But there are the towering statues in Statuary Hall, the shoes on their feet worn smooth by the caressing or curious hands of thousands of children through the years.

Will Rodgers in bronze—Oklahoma's contribution to the halls has the shiniest shoes in town.

He said he will investigate a report that Zoltan Gombos, commission member, sought reduction in labor fees for saliva tests on horses.

DiSalle said he has twice asked Mrs. Lily West of Columbus to resign as chairman of the Cosmetology Board and that he still wants her to quit.

"I'd like to get a new board," he said, the governor added. However, he expressed satisfaction with the work of Dr. Samuel Salaw of Columbus, a member of the board. The other member is Mrs. Edith Pyle of Greenfield, an appointee of former Gov. C. William O'Neill.

DiSalle said he has no plans for any change in the state Pardon and Parole Commission. The term of Clingan Jackson of Youngstown expires Tuesday. The governor indicated Jackson will stay on at least until the attorney general rules on whether members must serve full time at their jobs.

Crash Kills Woman, 73, After Wild Auto Ride

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A 73-year-old Marion woman, Alma Snider, died Monday of injuries received when the car she was driving careened off five other autos in a wild ride through suburban Worthington.

Police said the woman, driving south on U. S. 23, first hit a car driven by Edwin Coryn, 39, of Toledo, who had stopped for a traffic light.

She sped away from that crash and continued into Worthington at a high rate of speed and on the wrong side of the road, police said. In Worthington, she struck a car driven by Dana F. Gheen, 41, of Columbus and three parked cars before coming to a stop in a restaurant parking lot.

The coroner will be asked to rule.

Police investigated after a woman who worked with Mrs. Reed became concerned at her absence from her job.

Average Yank Not Worried By Inflation

Survey Reveals Belief That Monetary Fuss Is Mainly Political

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Maybe inflation has a different meaning on Main street than it has in Congress.

The congressional dispute over whether a new federal budget deficit would lead to more inflation, or whether it would just increase the rate of the nation's economic growth is enlivened today with this report from Minnesota:

Many million Americans don't really want inflation stopped.

This report is based on interviews with a wide sampling of citizens over a long period by the Family Economic Bureau of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. of Minneapolis.

It says although they complain about rising prices, many citizens think that monetary inflation, instead of being one of the causes of the high cost of living, is actually the measure of prosperous times.

The congressional dispute is along political lines.

Monetary conservatives hold that a balanced budget would keep the Treasury from feeding inflationary fires by swelling the supply of money and credit through its increased borrowing.

Spenders argue that the important thing is to stimulate the economy as federal spending tends to do. This would make more jobs and presumably more profits and personal income on which to levy taxes. Then the Treasury would take in more and need to borrow less.

But outside Congress most citizens are interested primarily in two other aspects: to preserve or raise their standards of living; to halt the increase in prices they must pay for goods and services.

The Family Economics Bureau says many Americans confuse their rising standard of living with monetary inflation.

Since 1939 the average American standard of living has gone up about 50 per cent. But this, the bureau says, isn't because there are four times as many dollars in circulation, but because production of goods and services has gone up about 50 per cent for each American consumer.

We have twice as many goods and services to buy today as in 1939, but we have four times as much money in circulation. The bureau holds that since there are now twice as many dollars bid for each unit of goods, the dollar will buy only half as much goods. This, it says, is how inflation has doubled prices.

Inflation thus distorts the appearance of prosperity while threatening in time to undermine it.

Christine Jorgensen's Marriage Is Delayed

NEW YORK (AP) — Christine Jorgensen's efforts to obtain a marriage license have been delayed by a technicality, not connected with the fact that she changed her sex.

The delay came Monday when the would-be bridegroom, Howard J. Knox, 33, a Waukegan, Ill., statistician, couldn't produce a copy of an Illinois divorce decree that ended a previous marriage.

As for Miss Jorgensen's sex, which was changed from male to female by surgery in Denmark in 1950, a blood test certificate on which a physician certifies that she is a woman should be sufficient, said City Clerk Herman Katz.

Stewart Grangers Like Their Ranch in Arizona

By GENE HANDSAKER
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Why would two British-born movie stars buy and live on a big Arizona ranch 600 miles from their work here?

"It's a wonderful life," said Stewart Granger. "I'd like to stay there and never come back to Hollywood."

We were on the sidelines while Jean Simmons, his wife, laddled out to a fellow Roman slave Kirk Douglas for a scene in "Spartacus."

During a break the London-reared lass said of ranching: "I love it. We're up early, out riding, checking over the joint. It's a very full day."

Joint? At my request Granger described their spread:

Ten thousand acres of rolling hills just east of Nogales, five

Visitors Start Trek to Capital

Washington Is Hit By Annual Influx

WASHINGTON (AP) — Even if the crocus and the forsythia weren't bursting into blossom you'd know it was springtime in Washington—the tourist season is in full bloom.

The annual spring influx of Americans to see their nation's capital started about two weeks ago.

This is the time the high school kids on their senior class trip roll into town in school buses draped with signs such as "Washington or bust."

This is the time the workers at the Capitol get in some broken field running to maneuver through the sightseers.

It's the busiest tourist time of the year, according to the head Capitol guide.

Washington expected about 200,000 visitors over the four-day Easter holiday weekend alone.

On April 7 there'll be another big influx for the traditional Cherry Blossom Festival with a torch-light parade and high school bands from many sections of the country.

This year, festival officials think they guessed right and the fairyland of pink cherry blossoms around the Jefferson Memorial will be at its prettiest on the festival day.

Unfortunately, the Capitol building isn't at its show-off best.

The halls of the Congress are silent while members are back home on their annual Easter recess.

The focal point of the Capitol—the rotunda with its massive paintings and skyward view into the dome—is closed for repairs.

But there are the towering statues in Statuary Hall, the shoes on their feet worn smooth by the caressing or curious hands of thousands of children through the years.

Will Rodgers in bronze—Oklahoma's contribution to the hall—has the shiniest shoes in town.

Five hundred head of Charolais beef cattle, a French breed, "all white and enormous." Seven families who work for us," their 30 children riding to a little red schoolhouse in a bus. Granger's two children by his former marriage—Jamie, 14½, and Lindsay, 13, a girl—in boarding school at Tucson, home on weekends.

How much of the work does he do?

"I don't dig a hole, but I say where the hole will go. I run the caterpillar and knock down trees. I love it. The evenings come far too soon."

By auto and airliner they can get from ranch to Hollywood studio in three hours when the wind is right. While here they rent a five-room penthouse apartment. Daughter Tracy, 2½, comes along—"with 48 dolls and toy animals for her," Granger said.

The governor noted that Chairman Thomas R. Lloyd of the Racing Commission has announced that rules will remain unchanged despite administration suggestions for revision. DiSalle said he will ask the Legislature "to change the present type of commission."

The governor previously advocated a Czar to regulate horse racing in Ohio, with the board relegated to an advisory capacity. DiSalle did not indicate what his recommendations to the Legislature will be.

He said he will investigate a report that Zoltan Gombos, commission member, sought reduction in laboratory fees for saliva tests on too soon."

DiSalle said he has twice asked Mrs. Lily West of Columbus to resign as chairman of the Cosmetology Board and that he still wants her to quit.

"I'd like to get a new board," the governor added. However, he expressed satisfaction with the work of Dr. Samuel Salaw of Columbus, a member of the board. The other member is Mrs. Edith Greenfield, an appointee of former Gov. C. William O'Neill.

DiSalle said he has no plans for any change in the state Pardon and Parole Commission. The term of Clingan Jackson of Youngstown expires Tuesday. The governor indicated Jackson will stay on at least until the attorney general rules on whether members must serve full time at their jobs.

The coroner will be asked to rule.

Police investigated after a woman who worked with Mrs. Reed became concerned at her absence from her job.

Ohio Historical Units Due To Open Wednesday

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio Historical Society buildings and exhibit areas will open to the public Wednesday. Thereafter they will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. from Tuesday through Sunday each week. Sole exception to Wednesday's opening is the Hanby House at Westerville. It goes on display May 1.

The increased taxes would cause people to drive less and possibly switch to more economical small cars, the council said Monday, which would reduce tax revenues by about 50 per cent.

Ohioans presently pay five cents in state tax and three cents in federal tax on every gallon of gas they buy.

High Finance for Children

DEAR ABBY: I am eleven years old and get one dollar a week allowance but I might as well get nothing because I have to put it all in the bank. My girlfriends gets 50 cents a week but can do anything she wants with it. Don't you think a person should be able to do what they want with their allowance? If I had my way I'd save most of it anyway because I have been taught to say but I want my parents to see it.

DOLLAR ALLOWANCE

DEAR DOLLAR: When a child is given a dollar a week with instructions to bank it all—that is not an "allowance." An allowance (if only a quarter a week) is money which the person is allowed to spend or save, as he chooses. If children are to learn how to budget, save and spend money properly, they should be given the opportunity to handle it themselves.

DEAR ABBY: I met a guy in civilian clothes and fell for him. I found out later he was a Marine. I like him much better in civilian clothing. When he shows up in his uniform it spoils everything for me because I just don't like him in that uniform. To tell the truth it brings back memories about the time I was young and foolish in

U.S. Ice Show Is Hailed in Soviet Capital

MOSCOW (AP)—An American ice show is the latest top box office attraction in the Soviet capital.

The premiere Monday night of "Holiday on Ice," starring former U.S. Olympic champion Dick Button, brought a Moscow audience to its feet and Deputy Foreign Minister Vassily Kuznetsov and his wife rushing backstage to congratulate the cast.

A stream of Soviet cultural officials and stage personalities showed congratulations on the stars and producer Morris Chalfen.

The first newspaper critic to comment said: "We wish our American artist friends great success."

Kuznetsov's wife was introduced to Button but the American star didn't catch her name. Kuznetsov leaned over and wisecracked in English, "It's Smith."

Another American skater, Arnold Shoda of Hempstead, N. Y., who learned Russian as a child, had a lively conversation with the Soviet official and his wife.

U. S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson brought the Russians backstage and posed for pictures with them and Joan Hyatt of Huntington, W. Va., and Alice Quesney of Detroit, Mich.

The first night show stopper was an eccentric sailor act by Guy Longpre of West Holyoke, Mass. Other audience favorites were 4-year-old Robbi Lalonde of Virginia, Minn., Kenny Rogers of Columbus, Ohio, and Bill Bain of Hollywood, Calif.

The show, a private venture, plans 40 performances in Moscow, then goes to Odessa.

High Finance for Children

DEAR ABBY: I am eleven years old and get one dollar a week allowance but I might as well get nothing because I have to put it all in the bank. My girlfriend gets 50 cents a week but can do anything she wants with it. Don't you think a person should be able to do what they want with their allowance? If I had my way I'd save most of it anyway because I have been taught to save. I know what you are going to say but I want my parents to see it.

DOLLAR ALLOWANCE

DEAR DOLLAR: When a child is given a dollar a week with instructions to bank it all—that is not an "allowance." An allowance (if only a quarter a week) is money which the person is allowed to spend or save, as he chooses. If children are to learn how to budget, save and spend money properly, they should be given the opportunity to handle it themselves.

DEAR ABBY: I met a guy in civilian clothes and fell for him. I found out later he was a Marine. I like him much better in civilian clothing. When he shows up in his uniform it spoils everything for me because I just don't like him in that uniform. To tell the truth it brings back memories about the time I was young and foolish in

U.S. Ice Show

Is Hailed in

Soviet Capital

MOSCOW (AP)—An American ice show is the latest top box office attraction in the Soviet capital.

The premiere Monday night of "Holiday on Ice," starring former U.S. Olympic champion Dick Button, brought a Moscow audience to its feet and Deputy Foreign Minister Vassily Kuznetsov and his wife rushed backstage to congratulate the cast.

A stream of Soviet cultural officials and stage personalities showed congratulations on the stars and producer Morris Chafkin.

The first newspaper critic to comment said: "We wish our American artist friends great success."

Kuznetsov's wife was introduced to Button but the American star didn't catch her name. Kuznetsov leaned over and whispered in English, "It's Smith."

Another American skater, Arnold Shoda of Hempstead, N. Y., who learned Russian as a child, was educated in Chinese schools and colleges before coming to the United States to take a master's degree at Chapel Hill, N.C.

"I got back to China just before Pearl Harbor," says this modern daughter of an ancient race. "I was married in the early days of the war, and then afterward came the Communist conquest of our country. My husband and I escaped to Formosa with our children.

"The constitution of Taiwan was adopted in 1947, and I have been a member of the Legislature since 1948, as have many other women.

There is so much to be done, the need and the opportunity are so great, that the days never seem long enough to get everything done."

Modern Free China Offers Big Opportunity to Women

By DOROTHY ROE
Associated Press Women's Editor

Free China today is a woman's world, says pert, petite Elizabeth Wang, a member of the Taiwan Legislature, now visiting America at the invitation of the U. S. Department of State.

"We have 64 women members of the Legislative Yuan out of 500," says Mrs. Wang. "In the National Assembly there are 210 women. There is no field in business, the professions or the arts where women are not making distinguished records."

A graduate of the University of North Carolina, she is married to C. Y. Chang, also a member of the Legislature, and has three sons: Bobby, 17, a student at Cheng-Kung University; Eddie, 15 and Frank, 3.

"We call them by American names," laughs Mrs. Wang. "They have long Chinese names, too, but these are easier."

Attendance was up substantially next Sunday.

Daughter of a high official, Elizabeth was born in Kiang-Su province, on the mainland of China, and was educated in Chinese schools and colleges before coming to the United States to take a master's degree at Chapel Hill, N.C.

Higgins Finds His Top Players Ouchy with Various Ailments

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A knotty lump arose in the throat of Boston Manager Mike Higgins today as he thumbed through the medical reports on his decimated outfield corps.

Higgins faces the prospect of opening the season without the big bat of Ted Williams, who has entered a hospital for treatment of a neck ailment.

Another outfielder, Gene Stephens, is sidelined with a badly sprained thumb. Jackie Jensen, the American League's MVP, has just returned to the line-up after missing valuable time due to a tooth infection.

Monday, 22-year-old Gary Geiger, hitting sensation of the Boston camp, suffered painful bruises on his neck and right leg in a collision with teammate Don Budin. Geiger, knocked unconscious for 20 minutes, will be sidelined for several days at least. The Red Sox won the game, defeating Cleveland 6-5.

While Higgins pondered his misfortune, a knowing smile crossed the face of Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney as he checked the reaction to his charges of complicity among the National League champions. Stung by the accusations, the Braves laced 15 hits Monday and broke a three-game losing streak with a 12-2 thumping of St. Louis.

In other games, New York defeated Cincinnati 4-0, Chicago's Cubs clubbed San Francisco 10-8, Detroit beat Los Angeles 8-4. Philadelphia subdued Washington 11-7, Pittsburgh topped Baltimore 8-4 and Chicago's White Sox nipped Kansas City 5-4.

Sammy White's single in the ninth drove home Dick Gernert, who had doubled, with the winning run for the Red Sox.

Hank Aaron's three-run homer paced the Milwaukee attack which also included four hits by Del Rice, Carl Willey and Bob Rush six-hit the Redbirds.

Veterans Bobby Shantz and Virgil Trucks combined for the Yankees' third shut out triumph of the exhibition season. Don Newcombe pitched four-hit ball for the Reds, but took the loss.

Dale Long broke out of a slump with two home runs as the Cubs and Giants shared eight hits equally. Bob Speake's homer for San Francisco was his first hit of the spring. Cubs' catcher Sammy Taylor spent the night in a hospital after being struck on the head by the backlash of a bat.

Al Kaline broke a 3-3 tie in the seventh with a three-run double and drove in five runs all told against the Dodgers. The second game of the scheduled double-header was rained out.

Carl Slatzki's two-run pinch single provided the impetus as the Phils, blanked on one hit for five innings by Senator rookie Jack Kralick, erupted for six runs in the sixth.

Ron Kline picked up three RBIs and went the distance for the Pirates. Pittsburgh was outhit 14-8 but three Oriole errors made the difference.

Dick Donovan hurled six-hit ball for seven innings in his first strong performance of the spring for the White Sox. The A's Ned Garver was pounded for all the Chicago tallies.

Major League Prospects

Bosox Expecting Better Finish

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP) — The Boston Red Sox last season had the American League's leading hitter, its second leading hitter and its RBI champion, who also turned out to be the most valuable player.

Trouble is, in the final standings, the Red Sox were listed as only the third best team.

The Sox this year have what could be a slightly more formidable organization. Manager Mike Higgins sees improvement.

"The pitching should be a little improved," Mike said. "For one thing, Tom Brewer had a slow start last year. Came to training with the mumps. He's coming along real good now. He's worth more than 12 games." (Brewer was 12-12 in 1958.)

Higgins also hopes to get some help from at least one of the youngsters on his staff. He's had his eye on a couple of lefthanders: Frank Baumann and Ed Bowsfield, and he wants a good look at Bill Monbouquette, a righthander who has been under six-month contract to the Army.

Older hands on the staff include Ike Deloh (14-8), Frank Sullivan (13-9), Mike Fornieles (4-6) and Willard Nixon (1-7). Dave Sisler (6-9) and Herb Moford (4-9 with Detroit and 6-0 with Charleston) may be used in relief with Leo Kiely (5-2) and Murray Wall (6-9).

The Red Sox were fifth in team hitting last year with a .256 average, but somehow they look stronger than that. First, of course

Old Injury Again Plagues Newcombe

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Big Don Newcombe, who started spring training hot with aspiration and perspiration, is in trouble again—his old shoulder injury.

And if Newk can't pitch the way he wants and thinks he can, the Cincinnati Reds are in trouble.

It was that trip to Havana earlier this month that brought out the old muscle misery. The Reds' bosses, fuming for a dry spot to play after steady Florida rain, flew some of them to Cuba. The burley righthander popped that shoulder muscle pitching in Havana 11 days ago.

And it showed effect in Monday's exhibition with New York's Yankees at St. Petersburg. The Yanks pounced on Newcombe for four runs and four hits in his seven-inning work stint, and shut out the Reds, 4-0.

Manager Mayo Smith has consistently counted on the 32-year-old big righthander as a bulwark of his pitching-short Reds.

He said: "I'd give us the pitching leader we need to become a solid pennant contender."

But if the new muscle miseries don't heal in a hurry, the Reds are in big trouble.

The Reds travel to Clearwater today for a game with Philadelphia.

Third Baseman Still Needed By Cleveland

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — With the season's opener only 10 days away, the Cleveland Indians are still without a starting third baseman.

Gene Leek, signed recently off the University of Arizona campus, has been spectacular. But the pitchers have found a weakness he can't hit a high, fast ball.

"How quickly he reaches the majors," Manager Joe Gordon said, "will depend on how quickly he can overcome the weakness."

Another candidate, the veteran Randy Jackson, hasn't been impressive in the past, is a third possibility, but he makes no secret of his distaste for the job. He likes first base, where he's one of the sharpest fielders in the league.

The Indians lost to the Boston Red Sox 6-5 Monday when Sammy White singled home the winning run in the ninth inning.

Boston got 10 hits off four Cleveland hurlers—Carl Thomas, Hal Woodhouse, Dick Brodowski and Jake Striker.

Striker was charged with the loss when he gave up a double, a walk and White's single in the ninth.

Gary Bell and Al Cicotte pitch today against the Giants. Herb Score will work against Boston Wednesday. Both games will be played here.

Cronell fencer Raoul Sudre, a 5-foot-7 junior, comes from Casablanca. He weighs 150 pounds.

Reached in New York, Gainford said he had received the telegram and that it was "quite attractive to me."

Gainford added he would talk to Robinson about it in "a day or so." He said that Robinson now is ill with the virus and "in no mood to talk fights."

Medical Data Saddening to Bosox Pilot

Higgins Finds His Top Players Ouchy with Various Ailments

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A knotty lump arose in the throat of Boston Manager Mike Higgins today as he thumbed through the medical reports on his decimated outfield corps.

Higgins faces the prospect of opening the season without the big bat of Ted Williams, who has entered a hospital for treatment of a neck ailment.

Another outfielder, Gene Stephens, is sidelined with a badly sprained thumb. Jackie Jensen, the American League's MVP, has just returned to the line-up after missing valuable time due to a tooth infection.

Monday, 22-year-old Gary Geiger, hitting sensation of the Boston camp, suffered painful bruises on his neck and right leg in a collision with teammate Don Budin. Geiger, knocked unconscious for 20 minutes, will be sidelined for several days at least. The Red Sox won the game, defeating Cleveland 6-5.

While Higgins pondered his misfortune, a knowing smile crossed the face of Milwaukee Manager Fred Haney as he checked the reaction to his charges of complacency among the National League champions. Stung by the accusations, the Braves laced 15 hits Monday and broke a three-game losing streak with a 12-2 thumping of St. Louis.

In other games, New York defeated Cincinnati 4-0, Chicago's Cubs clubbed San Francisco 10-8, Detroit beat Los Angeles 8-4. Philadelphia subdued Washington 11-7, Pittsburgh bopped Baltimore 8-4 and Chicago's White Sox nipped Kansas City 5-4.

Sammy White's single in the ninth drove home Dick Gernert, who had doubled with the winning run for the Red Sox.

Hank Aaron's three-run homer paced the Milwaukee attack which also included four hits by Del Rice. Carl Willey and Bob Rush six-hit the Redbirds.

Veterans Bobby Shantz and Virgil Trucks combined for the Yankees' third shut out triumph of the exhibition season. Don Newcombe pitched four-hit ball for the Reds, but took the loss.

Dale Long broke out of a slump with two home runs as the Cubs and Giants shared eight blasts equally. Bob Speake's homer for San Francisco was his first hit of the spring. Cubs' catcher Sammy Taylor spent the night in a hospital after being struck on the head by the backlash of a bat.

Al Kaline broke a 3-3 tie in the seventh with a three-run double and drove in five runs all told against the Dodgers. The second game of the scheduled double-header was rained out.

Carl Sawatski's two-run pinch single provided the impetus as the Phils, blanked on one hit for five innings by Senator rookie Jack Kralick, erupted for six runs in the sixth.

Ron Kline picked up three RBIs and went the distance for the Pirates. Pittsburgh was outhit 14-8 but three Oriole errors made the difference.

Dick Donovan hurled six-hit ball for seven innings in his first strong performance of the spring for the White Sox. The A's Ned Garver was pounded for all the Chicago tallies.

Sugar Ray's Pilot Likes Fight Offer

BOSTON (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson's manager today called "quite attractive" an offer guaranteeing the world middleweight champion $100,000 for a 15-round title fight with Paul Pender here in June.

Old Injury Again Plagues Newcombe

CLEARWATER, Fla. (AP) — Big Don Newcombe, who started spring training hot with aspiration and perspiration, is in trouble again—his old shoulder injury.

And if Newk can't pitch the way he wants and thinks he can, the Cincinnati Reds are in trouble.

It was that trip to Havana earlier this month that brought out the old muscle misery. The Reds' bosses, fuming for a dry spot to play after steady Florida rain, flew some of them to Cuba. The burly righthander popped the shoulder muscle pitching in Havana 11 days ago.

And it showed effect in Monday's exhibition with New York's Yankees at St. Petersburg. The Yanks pounced on Newcombe for four runs and four hits in his seven-inning work stint, and shut out the Reds, 4-0.

Manager Mayo Smith has consistently counted on the 32-year-old big righthander as a bulwark of his pitching-short Reds.

He said: "I'd give us to be a pitching leader we'd need to be." But if the new muscle miseries don't heal in a hurry, the Reds are in big trouble.

The Reds travel to Clearwater today for a game with Philadelphia.

Gary Bell and Al Cicotte pitch today against the Giants. Herb Score will work against Boston Wednesday. Both games will be played at 7 p.m.

Circleville fencer Raoul Sudre, a 5-foot-7 junior, comes from Casablanca. He weighs 150 pounds.

Ohio University Keeps Golf Crown

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—The Greenbrier Intercollegiate Invitational Golf championship remains at Ohio University for another year.

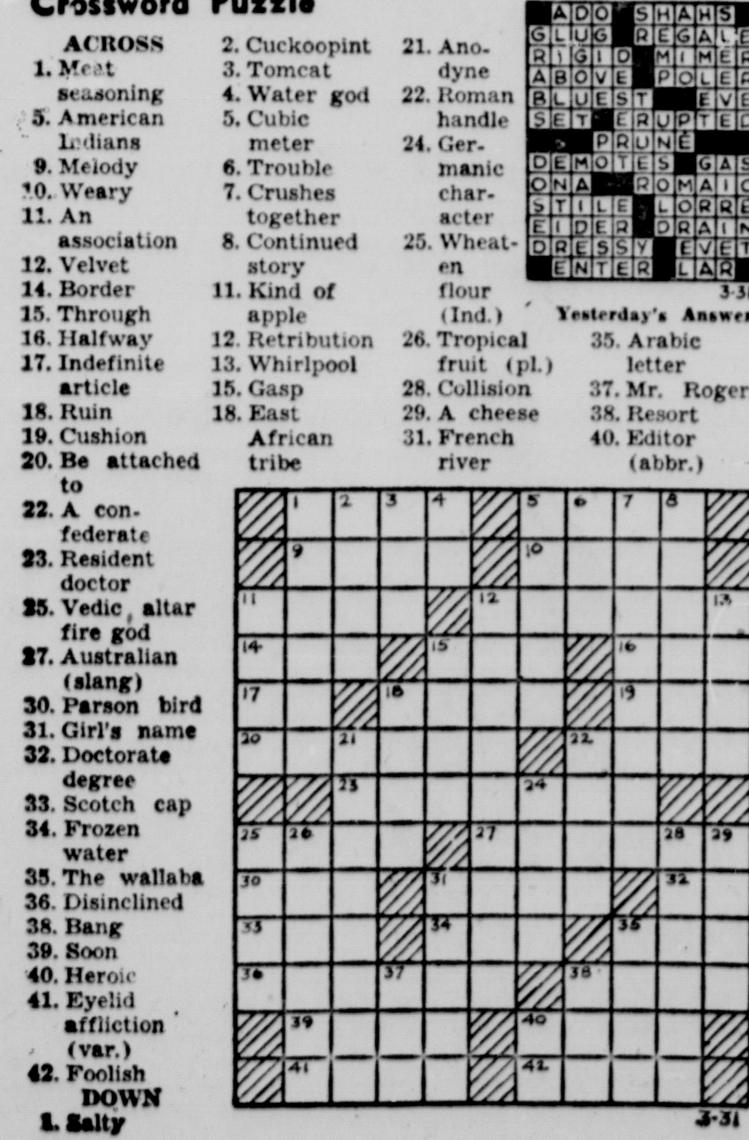

The Bobcats won the title Monday for the second straight year. Ohio U. made a sweep of the event as Charlie Vandlik carded a 70-68-138 to take medalist honors.

Ohio U.'s six-man team posted a combined score of 886 in the 36-hole medal-play event. Following behind were Colgate and Davidson, both with 893; Marshall, 906; Washington and Lee, 925; University of Pittsburgh, 934; Denison (Ohio), 952, and George Washington, 955.

EVER HAPPEN TO YOU?

Crossword Puzzle

should be strong. For the first time we have a lefthanded starter who proved he could win in the majors."

While there are 79 players in camp at Terry Park here, working hard on two diamonds, the Pittsburgh club for the first time in many, many years is a set baseball club with solid major league talent at all spots and plenty of promising stuff ready to fill in.

Some Pirate fans are still seething over the trade which sent their No. 1 power boy, Frank Thomas, to the Reds for pitcher Harvey Haddix, infelder Don Hoak and catcher Smokey Burgess, but the Bucco brass figures it made the deal to strengthen the club where it needed it. And, Dick Stuart, the brash youngster of a few years ago who came into the training camp after hitting 66 home runs for a minor league club, finally came into his own last year and is expected to carry the over-the-fence load.

The optimism, that the Corsairs may take it all this year, is based on the Bucs' showing last season when they not only finished in the first division for the first time in 10 years but wound up second, only eight games off the pace of the talent-loaded Milwaukee Braves.

Murtaugh's optimism stems, naturally, from the Pirates' finish last year plus the fact that he is an Irishman and also that he has visited a set baseball club with good pitching and a fine-looking crop of rookie hopefuls.

"Being Irish," Danny said in camp here, "makes one optimistic for an Irishman is never pessimistic. Additionally, we have eight fellows on this club who have proved they could play in the majors; we have several good catchers, three first basemen and our pitching Danny admits he has a fine ball club but quiet his feeling with the statement that "let's hope" they will be as good as they were last year." He has a fine pitching staff headed by Bob Friend, the only 20-game winner in the majors outside of Bob Turley of the Yanks and the Brave duo of Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette and going with Bob as starters are Ron Kline, who won 13, and Vern Law, who won 14, and the very capable veteran, Haddix, a southpaw. Additionally, he uncovered two rookie pitching finds last year in Curt Raydon and George Witt, who won 17 games for Danny.

There are a flock of young hurlers in camp with Bennie Daniels, a 14-game winner with Columbus; Gred Green, who won 10 at Salt Lake City; Al Jackson, an 18-game winner at Lincoln, and Joe Gibbon, a farm club flinger up from Columbus, giving the team good new talent on the firing line.

Additionally, Danny has such fine slabmen as Elroy Face and Bob Porterfield. Of Porterfield, Murtaugh says: "He did a heckuva good job for us last year. He can pitch every day with good stuff."

The catching staff has additional power with Burgess and includes Hank Foiles and Danny Kravitz.

Up for grabs could be the first base spot where Stuart, who hit 16 homers for the Corsairs in 67 games after belting 31 round-trippers for Salt Lake City, is ready to take over. On hand here are Ted Kluszewski, the 240-pound man mountain, and the aging veteran, Rocky Nelson, who murdered minor league pitching again last year and earns another chance at making the major grade.

Nelson, who hit 43 home runs for Toronto, is going to be given a good look with the Bucs. "Anybody who could hit like Rocky has in the minors deserves a good chance in my book," says Danny.

The infield is virtually set with Dick Groat at short, Bill Mazeroski at second and Hoak at third. Gene Baker, formerly with the Cubs, underwent an operation for torn tendons, and he is on the shelf at the moment but is a good fill-in infielder.

In the outfield are Bob Skinner, who reached stardom last year with a .321 batting average; Bill Virdon, who hit .267, and Roberto Clemente, who wound up with .289. No 1 fill-in unless either Stuart or Nelson are shifted to the outfield is Ramon Mejias, who is as good a utility man as you can find around. Jim McDaniel, who socked 37 homers for Salt Lake City, is being given a trial.

It could be a big year for Pittsburgh in baseball, for in addition to what could be a real pennant contender the Smoky City plays host to the All-Star game in July.

Bill (Moose) Skowron, Yankee first baseman, hit .351 against the Chicago White Sox in 1958. He drove in 17 runs against the second place team.

DiSalle Shuns Any Idea of TV Execution

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has made it clear he will reject all requests to televise executions at Ohio penitentiary.

A Cleveland newspaperman had written DiSalle asking him what he would do if a station asked permission to televise an electrocution at the penitentiary.

The governor said Monday that he wrote back:

"Capital punishment should be abolished . . . Making a spectacle of the death of an individual is not the proper avenue to accomplish this goal. Our best resource is still an appeal to reason and the basic decent motivations of humanity."

Still pending in a Senate committee is a proposal to place the death penalty issue before Ohio voters in the form of an amendment to the state constitution. DiSalle, however, said he opposes that resolution.

The governor also told his news conference he has warned officials of two unidentified counties to close gambling casinos or face exposure.

He said state liquor agents had made bets at the gambling spots but were unable to act because

Railroad To Furnish Umbrellas To Forgetful

NEW YORK (AP) — The Long Island Rail Road will lend umbrellas to commuters.

The railroad said the umbrellas will be left at transfer stations for commuters to borrow on rainy days and return on an honor basis.

The railroad isn't taking a very big financial risk in embarking on the program. It's using umbrellas left on trains by absent-minded passengers.

neither place had liquor licenses or served drinks.

The governor said he does not want big time gamblers to get a foothold in Ohio.
